The Dawn of Flame Adventure Path is a series of adventures that takes characters from 1st-level to 20th-level, and explores one of the first, and worst, brand new horrors to arise in the Starfinder setting: the Plane of Fire. Can you be the kind of person who can solve a ghost's biggest mystery? That's the question Dreadbringer, King of Abaddon, asks in his own quest to discover the mysteries of the afterlife, the material plane, and the various aspects of the supernatural underworld. He has traveled deep beneath the earth to the kingdom of the dead, but that doesn't satisfy his thirst for knowledge. He has fastened his gothic rock armor on a lesser demon's skeletal husk and outfitted his shield with a solidified cloud of sulfuric acid. The skeletal husk rolls silently beside him. Dreadbringer believes that the answer to the burning questions of life will be found inside the desert city of Es'hahkisis, but the King of Abaddon is surprised to find out that it's not just one haunted city that lies hidden in the bowels of the Earth, but five. This adventure for characters of 1st-level and higher begins in the deserts of the Burning Archipelago. It visits five ghost towns that lie abandoned after they were sacked by the lashuntas, a ferocious alien race that are naturally resistant to fire, and prevents travelers from entering the cities. There, your heroes can find the remains of the "astromancer" who first brought fire to the Burning Archipelago, and who reigned for many years. This powerful and mysterious figure had cursed the lashunta and kept the fire burning within them so that he could use it to his own ends, but now his terrible control is gone, and the lashunta rebels have seized control of the cities. While the first expedition went well, rescuing their contact from the lashuntas and returning with her to Asanatown, they have just arrived at the second ghost town to find it empty, and they too are surrounded by lashunta fighters. The mission is turning into a catastrophe when some of the lashunta discover their leader's criminal record and the truth about her heritage. Now she is kidnapping all the surviving heroes to throw them off track, and they have to get back to Asanatown immediately before they are caught by her guards. They must free themselves from the lashuntas

What's new in Serious Sam: Tormental:

Number 1 - April 1934 No content Well that's more unlike me, hasn't written anything in a while, just dabbled a bit here and there. Hopefully it will only be a one off and I'll be back to finishing off those series that I have on the go. There's only 13 pages worth of text for this issue, amazing what I can manage. More adventures for Bonnie and Barry, and Frank is unfortunately forced to leave them on the way to Amersterdam, which is in the chaos of the Second World War! Fantasy Grounds - Journal of the Travellers' Aid Society Volume 1 Number 2 - May 1934 No content Once again I couldn't write anything, life was just too busy at the moment and the fact I've been given an amazing induction into the BA shortly after my birthday (which was three weeks ago now) has taken priority. Really wish I had the time to finish the first three issues of this A-Z series, but with the huge amount of stories I have on the go that time is the one thing I can't seem to get access to. Unfortunately Frank is now the only employee left of his family as his parents and brother have passed away, forever, no doubt. He has taken over the family business and runs an outrigger in Australia. The fact they have been friends of ours and have been working on their suffered for nearly 7 years means a lot to us. The Outrigger Banana Inn - Dunder Tomb of the White Elephant Booth The fantastic voyage of Frank's grandparents had come to an end. Frank didn't quite know what to make of this odd fellow who had recently settled in the Outrigger Bananas Inn. And Bonnie certainly saw no need of telling her dear old friend of the family known as Frank what was happening to the good ship Grandparents in those distant lands. The Outrigger Bananas Inn had a reputation for being the best in the Bena-Maori pit, though as always great progress had been made since the tragic shipwreck. Bonnie had heard many stories from the old seafaring family but Frank had more recent memories. Now that he was such good friends with the family he had seen many more of the happenings in the Pit and even travelled with the family back from the Bena-Maori about three years before. He had left Brisbane in late December 1931 and boarded the White Elephant for a voyage to Moa Screenshots Trailer 4 comments User Reviews A pretty good game, not too hard and the great variety of enemies makes it feel fresh. It's not the best shooter, but the fact that it's more than just a shooter only helps it. A possibly record-breaking high-water mark was set in the European Union's southernmost countries as flash floods struck the Spanish territories of Ceuta and Melilla. Frothing waters rushed across roads, reduced bridges to stumps and prompted the evacuation of an estimated 5,000 people to emergency shelters. Further west along the border, Belgium was also on the receiving end of excess rain and heavy winds. Hurricane-force gusts of up to 100 kilometers an hour swept along the coast on Tuesday and authorities urged people living in low-lying areas and by the sea to prepare to evacuate. The emergency response in Ceuta, Melilla, in North Africa, was one of the first in Europe following a record-breaking storm triggered by a winter storm in the United States.
