Benchmarking Software - Want to see your games performance in real-time? Fraps not only provides an easy way to record games, but also gives you an accurate game speed gauge using Fraps' benchmarking functions. Fraps records an infinite number of frames, and you can choose what frame rate you want. Unlike other screencapture/screencast/screenrecording software, Fraps automatically saves your recordings as video files for you to use, with basic effects. Fraps provides a frame counter in the status bar to let you monitor your game's progress. High Definition Game Recorder - Fraps' HD feature enables you to take high-quality recordings. Fraps takes the hassle out of high quality screen capture, and record in full-screen or window mode, as well as in real-time to a VCD/SVCD/AVI/MPEG4 file. Fraps takes screenshots and video in high quality resolution, and generates a single output file without having to cut-and-paste. Fraps' recordings are automatically timed and tagged to make it easy to move from one point to the next. Screengrab creators, gamers and everyday users will all benefit from Fraps' HD. Realtime Video Capture Software - Have you ever wanted to record video while playing your favourite game Come join the Machinima revolution! Throw away the VCR, forget about using a DV cam, game recording has never been this easy! Fraps can capture audio and video up to 7680x4800 with custom frame rates from 1 to 120 frames per second! CUSTOMIZABLE VIDEO RECORDING RULES - Fraps is available in a variety of built-in video recording modes, frame rates, and also other customizable video recording rules. Fraps can also be controlled using keyboard shortcuts, which makes it easier to capture video in real time, and minimize game lag using specific custom settings such as a higher frame rate. Fraps also allows you to change video-recording default settings or use Fraps' own when you start recording. Fraps even supports gamepad control for complex scenarios. Why not take a screencast of your game in a new way by recording the whole game?
