it's not very often that haru has a normal day. for example, haru is a very noisome person, so he has a hard time keeping himself from waking people up when they sleep. however, even if he does that, they usually ask him to move, so that he can sleep better. since haru's childhood, he was always taught by his parents to never run away. after he became a teenager, his parents became weak, and he has been walking around in their shadows. it was because of that that he felt the need to run away. however, when he ran away, he felt a sense of freedom. when he was in that state, he got into something called "room fever". after he got better, he got over room fever, but became fearful of being alone in a room. as a result, he started to ask people for advice about how to deal with that. it was a problem that he couldn't solve by himself, so he had to ask for advice. although haru thinks the girls he likes are pretty, he doesn't approach them for dating. his reason is that he has a strong fear of being rejected.

for example, he met a girl who had a very different appearance from the normal girls he likes, and he was so afraid he felt like he was going to pass out from shock. the first haru story to be released is aquatic animal,also known as ikimono-sama no hikari no fukushuu,which is about a giant squid that could only communicate through song. haru met its owner, who was a legendary singer named akito. akito was the only person who could understand the giant squid's language, and she seemed to prefer haru over her other boyfriends. haru spent some time with akito and they were close friends. however, as soon as akito went on a concert tour, haru received a call from her to say that she had been hospitalized after she fell from a window. haru went to visit her, but akito made it clear that she had not fallen from a window and that she had simply gotten bored with haru. this hurt haru, but he could do nothing to help akito.

in the summer of 2013, haru was still in mourning for rin. one day, he went to the beach to forget about the pain that he felt. when he was on the beach, he was approached by a little girl named hina who was also visiting the beach. she was also in a similar situation like haru, and was also in mourning for her friend, yuuki. she was a descendant of the 12 rat family, and was in a very similar situation like haru and rin. she told him that she liked him and that she wanted to be with him. haru was shocked by this, because she was a little girl. after a while, they both went home. at the beginning of september, rin got abducted by akito. haru was furious and enraged, and he went into his black persona. rin was abducted by akito because akito wanted her to become his bride. he could see that rin was too afraid to refuse his request, and that the love for each other was stronger than the fear of death. haru is very optimistic and can't wait to see everyone in the next school year. he is also very kind and will do anything for anyone in need. he can be a bit naive and can sometimes trust people way too easily, but once his trust is given, he'll never break it. haru's father is the president of the board of trustees for kaibara municipal high school and is very supportive of his son and spends most of his time away from home. haru also has a younger sister named haru kanako who is very shy and is a good friend of yuki sohma. in the manga version of the series, haru is the only one who knows the truth about rin being a sohma. he has trouble believing that yuki is really her brother until akito confirms it for him, but he tells rin to follow yuki since he's a true sohma. 5ec8ef588b
